

ALL WEEK LONG

Library Exhibit

The Library's Heritage Room preserves so many precious memories of our city, people, and surroundings.

To honor the amazing work of the library, visit the Heritage Room for a flash back of old memories from the 1920s to today! The exhibit will showcase library images, artifacts, videos, and more. You never know, lifelong Corona residents might see some familiar faces! Exhibit open during Heritage Room hours.

Monday - Thursday: 10am-7:45pm

Friday: 10am-1:30pm & 2:00pm-5:45pm

Saturday: 1pm-4:45pm

Decade Drop-Ins

Informal activities available all week long at the community tables found in the Teens on Main. They are a reminder that libraries of today are not just a one-stop place for books; they are dynamic spaces where people can gather, play, share experiences, and build community connections.

Mon & Tues: 60s & 70s I-Spy

Wed & Thur: Teen Books Through the Decades sorting activity and coloring sheets

Fri & Sat: 90s and Early 2000s Cartoon Memory Game

My Generation Poll and Toy Trivia

What decade were you born in? Share your answer anonymously and watch the poll numbers rise as you root for your generation!

Can you match each toy with the decade in which it was first released? Take the quiz and submit your response for a chance to win a prize!

Both activities can be found in the main hallway!
